Structural Profile

Directions: Rate yourself on the following dimensions on a seven-point scale with “1” being the lowest and “7” being the highest.

- Behaviors Some people may be described as “doers”— they are action oriented, they like to busy themselves, get things done, take on various projects. How much of a doer are you? 1 2 3 4 5 6 7
- Affect Some people are very emotional and may or may not express it. How emotional are you? How deeply do you feel things? How passionate are you? 1 2 3 4 5 6 7
- Sensation Some people attach a lot of value to sensory experiences, such as sex, food, music, art, and other “sensory delights.” Others are very much aware of minor aches, pains, and discomforts. How “tuned into” your sensations are you? 1 2 3 4 5 6 7
- Imagery How much fantasy or daydreaming do you engage in? This is separate from thinking or planning. This is “thinking in pictures,” visualizing real or imagined experiences, letting your mind roam. How much are you into imagery? 1 2 3 4 5 6 7
- Cognition Some people are very analytical and like to plan things. They like to reason things through. How much of a “thinker” and “planner” are you? 1 2 3 4 5 6 7

Interpersonal

How important are other people to you? This is your self-rating as a social being. How important are close friendships to you, the tendency to gravitate toward people, the desire for intimacy? The opposite of this is being a “loner.”

1 2 3 4 5 6 7

Drugs/Biological

Are you healthy and health conscious? Do you avoid bad habits like smoking, too much alcohol, drinking a lot of coffee, and overeating? Do you exercise regularly, get enough sleep, avoid junk foods, and generally take care of your body?
