

CHOOSE YOUR CAREER PATH WORKSHEET

Instruction: Review and fill out each step below to identify the type of work, environment, and structure that best aligns with your goals.

Step 1: Select the type of coaching you want to practice

Check the box that feels most aligned with your strengths and interests.

- ☐ Personal Trainer – You enjoy movement coaching, hands-on work, and in-person sessions.
- ☐ Nutrition Coach – You prefer guiding behavior change, nutrition habits, and long-term support.
- ☐ Hybrid Coach – You want to integrate training + nutrition.

Why this appeals to me (write 2–3 sentences):

Step 2: Choose your ideal coaching environment

Where do you imagine doing your best work? Choose one.

- ☐ In-Person – Gyms, studios, clinics.
- ☐ Online/Remote – Virtual check-ins, asynchronous coaching.
- ☐ Hybrid – A mix of both.

What environment supports my energy, strengths, and lifestyle best?

Step 3: Decide how you want to be employed

Rate yourself to determine whether you thrive with autonomy or prefer defined expectations..

Circle your preference:

Autonomy / Flexibility — 1 2 3 4 5 — Stability / Structure

- ➔ If I lean toward 1–2: I may thrive as an independent or online coach.
- ➔ If I lean toward 4–5: I may do best working for a gym, company, or structured coaching business.

Choose one of the following below. Use this to clarify your appetite for stability vs independence and decide what you think might fit your career path the best.

- ☐ Employee / Contractor – Structure, consistent pay, less admin.
- ☐ Business Owner / Entrepreneur – Flexibility, higher upside, more responsibility.
- ☐ Hybrid – A stable job + building a side coaching business.

Why this type of employment fits me:

Notes

