

CURRENT CAREER STAGE WORKSHEET

Instruction: Choose the stage that best describes your current career stage.

Step 1: Identify challenges

From the career stage you selected, list out the challenges you currently face.

- Early Career Coach: Small roster, often nights/weekends.
- Growing Coach: Building efficiency with 10–25 clients.
- Full-Time Coach: This is your main job; systems must be streamlined.

Step 2: Use the prompts below to clarify your focus

If you are Early Career:

- Your focus is responsiveness, consistent reps, skill-building, and credibility.
- Which of these is your biggest challenge right now:

If you are a Growing Coach:

- Your focus is structure, batching tasks, developing systems, and proactive communication.
- Which of these is your biggest challenge right now:

If you are Full-Time:

- Your focus is boundaries, deep work, efficiency, and long-term sustainability.
- Which of these is your biggest challenge right now:

Now that you've identified your career stage and your biggest current challenge, use that insight to guide your next step. Focus on building one habit, system, or skill that directly supports your stage. Revisit this worksheet as your coaching load grows to ensure your actions stay aligned with where you are and where you want to go.

- ## Notes

Skill-Leveling Plan (0–5 Years)

Foundation: Months 0–12

Focus on:

- Basic assessments
- Client communication
- Simple systems
- Professionalism & consistency

What I will do in my first year:

- _____
- _____

Growth: Years 1–3

Focus on:

- Efficient workflows
- Advanced nutrition or training knowledge
- Scalable assets (guides, videos, templates)
- Early specialization

My key goals for years 1–3:

- _____
- _____

Mastery: Years 3–5

Focus on:

- Specializations (sports, weight loss, mindset coaching, etc.)
- Leadership, mentorship, or team roles
- System design & long-term career architecture

What mastery looks like for me:

- _____
- _____

Your 5-Year Vision

Use the skills you listed in each stage (Foundation, Growth, Mastery) to shape your bigger picture. Ask: If I build these skills over time, what should my career look like in 1, 3, and 5 years? That becomes your 5-Year Vision.

Then narrow your focus. Choose 3 skills that matter most right now. These form your 90-Day Action Plan, the immediate steps that move you toward the long-term path you outlined.

Year 1: What do I want to achieve? (Clients, income, skills, education milestones)

Year 3: What do I want my career to look like?

Year 5: What kind of professional do I want to be?

Circle or write your own: Senior Coach / Specialist / Business Owner / Director / Educator / Mentor

90-Day Action Plan

Instruction: This is where you translate vision into action.

My chosen career path (coach type + environment + structure):

Top 3 skills I will improve next:

1.

2.

3.

Boundaries I will implement:

Tools or systems I need to adopt:

My success metric for the next 90 days:
