

HUMANIZE VS AUTOMATE CHECKLIST

Provided below is a checklist to help coaches determine what to automate versus what to keep humanized. Check whether or not you have either addressed or acknowledged how you plan to humanize vs. automate your coaching practice. This checklist will ensure you are:

- ➔ Automating operational tasks that do not require human judgment
- ➔ Humanizing the moments where coaching value, trust, and impact are created

Automate These Tasks (Operational Efficiency)

Billing & Payments

- ☐ Recurring payments are automated
- ☐ Invoices are generated and sent automatically
- ☐ Failed payment notifications are system-driven
- ☐ Pauses, cancellations, and billing changes are handled through software
- ☐ Billing policies are clearly documented and system-enforced

Scheduling

- ☐ Clients self-book through a scheduling tool
- ☐ Calendars sync automatically
- ☐ Appointment reminders are automated
- ☐ Time zones are handled automatically
- ☐ Buffer times are built into bookings

Data Organization

- ☐ Client intake is standardized
- ☐ Check-ins use a consistent form
- ☐ Progress is tracked in one system
- ☐ Client notes are centralized and organized
- ☐ Files and documents follow a naming convention

Program & Resource Delivery

- ☐ Programs are built from templates
- ☐ Educational content is delivered automatically
- ☐ Onboarding sequences are systemized
- ☐ Check-in reminders are automated
- ☐ Progress uploads are centralized

Humanize These Moments (Client Experience)

Coaching Feedback

- ☐ Check-in responses are personalized
- ☐ Plan adjustments reflect individual context
- ☐ Changes are explained clearly and thoughtfully
- ☐ Client questions are addressed directly

Client Communication & Connection

- ☐ Conversations show active listening
- ☐ Responses reflect empathy and understanding
- ☐ Wins are acknowledged and celebrated
- ☐ Communication tone feels human—not scripted

Problem-Solving & Adaptation

- ☐ Stalled progress is diagnosed, not guessed
- ☐ Setbacks are addressed with context
- ☐ Expectations are reset when needed
- ☐ Mindset and behavior are coached—not ignored

Trust & Relationship Building

- ☐ Client context is remembered and referenced
- ☐ Follow-ups happen after difficult weeks
- ☐ Life events are acknowledged
- ☐ Presence is consistent within defined boundaries

Quality Control Check

Do a quick check to ensure that your automation versus humanization decision tree is positively, not negatively, impacting your business.

- ☐ I am not spending time on tasks that should be automated
- ☐ I am not rushing through moments that should be human
- ☐ My systems make coaching easier, not harder
- ☐ My best clients feel more supported through my automations
