

INTAKE FOLLOW-UP GUIDE

Use this guide to systematize your on-boarding process through the follow-up. . When used properly, this guide will help you:

- Reinforce trust and professionalism
- Confirm understanding and alignment
- Clarify next steps
- Maintain momentum without overwhelming the client

When to Follow Up

The timing of follow up and the method of follow up matters. Provided are steps to consider to ensure you follow up in the most professional manner.

- Send follow-up within 24–48 hours
- Use the client's preferred communication method
- Keep it clear, concise, and supportive

What to Include in the Follow-Up

1. Acknowledge the Conversation

- Thank the client for their time and openness
- Reinforce that their goals and concerns were heard
- Reflect one meaningful insight they shared

Example prompt:

“What stood out most about their situation or motivation?”

2. Summarize Key Takeaways

- Restate the client's primary goal(s)
- Highlight 1–2 patterns or themes observed
- Avoid diagnosis or prescriptive language

3. Clarify the Coaching Process

- Re-explain what happens next in simple terms
- Reinforce how assessment data will be used
- Set expectations for when programming begins

Example:

“Next, I’ll use what we discussed to design a plan that fits your lifestyle and goals.”

4. Confirm Next Steps

- Outline exactly what the client should expect
- Include timelines (first check-in, onboarding, next session)
- Clarify any actions the client needs to take

Client actions might include:

- Completing additional forms
- Logging food or habits
- Setting up tools or apps

5. Reinforce Professional Boundaries

- Restate communication expectations
- Clarify where and when support happens
- Normalize that questions will be addressed at the right time

Tone Checklist

The follow-up message is a critical time to ensure you are communicating in the right tone with your clients so they end your onboarding process feeling positive.

- Warm and encouraging
- Clear and professional
- Confident, not rushed
- Supportive, not overwhelming

Quality Check Before Sending

Measure twice, cut once. Complete a quality check before you hit send. This is one of your first real deliverables as a coach, ensure it is exactly what you want to send. Here are a few questions to ask yourself before you send your follow up.

- Did I avoid prescribing too early?
- Does this create clarity and momentum?
- Would I feel confident receiving this as a client?