

LOWERING CLIENT CHURN WORKSHEET

Instructions: This worksheet is designed to help you work through the five levels of client retention. Use this worksheet to help identify which business systems need to be built or strengthened to reduce client churn and increase lifetime client value. For each item, simply check “Yes”, “No”, or “In Progress”. Any answer where you mark “No” represents an area of your business where client churn risk may be elevated.

Level 1: Be Effective

Retention starts with results that are visible, understandable, and consistent.

Early Wins System

	Yes	No	In Progress
I have a clearly defined first 30-days outcome for every client.
Clients know what success looks like in their first phase.
I actively highlight early wins to the client.

Ongoing Progress System

	Yes	No	In Progress
I have a structured check-in cadence.
Progress is tracked beyond scale weight or aesthetics.
Wins are reinforced even during plateaus

Plan and Communication

	Yes	No	In Progress
Clients are shown both short-term and long-term plans.
Milestones are explained before they occur.
Problems are addressed proactively—not reactively.

Level 2: Be Indispensable

Clients stay when they feel like their life is better when working with you and that you uniquely meet their needs.

Anticipation and Problem Solving

	Yes	No	In Progress
I anticipate common obstacles before clients hit them.
I routinely ask what could cause this client to quit.
I address friction (schedule, motivation, expectations) early.

Value Differentiation

	Yes	No	In Progress
My service goes beyond programs or prescriptions.
I consistently over-deliver relative to client expectations.
I can clearly articulate what makes my coaching unique.

Client Experience

	Yes	No	In Progress
Working with me feels easy and well-organized.
Clients feel personally known, not processed.
My systems support “unreasonable hospitality” at scale.

Level 3: Reward Longevity

Retention improves when you give clients reason(s) to stay for long periods of time.

Loyalty Systems

	Yes	No	In Progress
I have loyalty-based pricing, perks, or bonuses.
Long-term clients receive benefits new clients do not.
Longevity is intentionally recognized.

Milestone Recognition

	Yes	No	In Progress
Client anniversaries or milestones are tracked.
Birthdays or major events are acknowledged.
Rewards are tied to adherence, not just outcomes.

Level 4: Create Community

Retention improves when you ask people to be part of a community, not just a transaction.

Relationship Systems

	Yes	No	In Progress
Clients have a community to engage in
The community has core values
My coaching builds personal connection in addition to professional coaching

Engagement and Belonging

	Yes	No	In Progress
Clients feel part of something larger than just their individual coaching program.
There are opportunities to connect with clients outside formal checkins
Client wins are celebrated outside of just the coaching interactions.

Level 5: Self-Growth

Retention improves when you grow and continue to increase the capacity in which you serve your clients

Professional Growth

	Yes	No	In Progress
I actively pursue professional development.
Clients are aware of my continued education.
My growth results in greater value for clients.

Long-Term Positioning

	Yes	No	In Progress
I am positioned as a long-term professional, not just a hobbyist.
Clients understand the potential in long-term coaching.
Coaching is framed as on-going, not just a one time event.

Long-Term Positioning

	Yes	No	In Progress
I am positioned as a long-term professional, not just a hobbyist.
Clients understand the potential in long-term coaching.
Coaching is framed as on-going, not just a one time event.

Exit and Re-Entry

	Yes	No	In Progress
Clients exit intentionally and with a clear path for returning.
I have systems for following-up and re-engaging former clients.
I have systems to make returning feel easy and natural.

Final Systems Action Plan

Instructions: Review your results from above and write down the top 3 churn risks you identified from the worksheet and then create a plan to create or improve your systems for one or more of the risks identified.
