

Process-Focused Examples

Stroke or Area	Process Goals	✓
Full Shot	Check the lie, wind, yardage, and club selection. Pick a smart target and club. See or feel the shot. Trust my setup or alignment to the target. Use a practice swing to feel the shot. Focus on the target or one swing trigger. Trust my swing. Stick to my preshot routine. Feel comfortable, not perfect, with my setup. Back off when out of my routine. Focus on hitting fairways. Focus on hitting greens. Other: _____	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Putting	Read the putt from the low side of hole. Select a specific line, spot, or path. See or feel the line or path of the putt. Be decisive with my line, without second-guessing it. Feel natural with my setup. Trust my putting stroke. Focus on the line of the putt, or feel the line. Focus on the feeling of solidly hitting the putt. Focus on one-putting the green. Focus on having good speed on longer putts. Other: _____	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Chipping	Trust my first instinct to pick the correct shot. Commit to the plan for the shot. See or feel the shot. Feel the shot using practice strokes. Focus on the target or landing area. Focus on swinging freely. Focus on good distance control. Focus on my trajectory for the shot. Other: _____	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Sand Shot	Let go of the last shot. Trust my first instinct to pick the correct shot. Commit to my plan. See or feel the line of the shot. Feel the shot using practice strokes. Focus on the target or landing area. Trust my stroke. Other: _____	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
Mental Game & Tactics	Stay in the moment by focusing on the steps in my routine. Play aggressively, not cautiously. Be decisive with club selection and shots. Let go of bad shots or holes quickly. Focus on my strengths in golf. Stick to my plan for the course. Focus on my preshot routine. Use my positive self-talk. Play freely and trust my strokes. Other: _____	_____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____ _____