

Preround Mental Checklist

Mental Prep Area	Preround Tasks
Enter the Role of Golfer	☐ I acknowledge distractions from my life. ☐ I commit to setting aside life issues or hassles. ☐ I fully enter into and commit to the role of the golfer.
Game Plan or Strategy	☐ I study the golf course and layout. ☐ I will use my strengths to attack the course. ☐ I know what clubs to use off tees and into greens.
Proactive With Confidence	☐ I reviewed my list of reasons to be confident. ☐ I use positive self-talk statements to be confident. ☐ I address any last-minute preround doubts.
Set Process Goals	☐ I know what objectives to focus on during my routine. ☐ I set one or two process goals to focus on execution. ☐ I commit to focusing on one shot at a time.
Rehearse Performance	☐ I see and/or feel myself executing shots. ☐ I see and/or feel myself playing with confidence. ☐ I rehearse a few holes of the round.
Prepare to Trust	☐ I do not practice my swing during the warm-up. ☐ I do not judge the quality of my warm-up. ☐ Once practice is complete, it's time to use what I have.
Embrace the Butterflies	☐ I feel excited and ready for the round, not scared. ☐ I welcome butterflies, because this is a sign that I am ready. ☐ I channel extra energy to help me focus from the start.