

Creating a set of community guidelines can help members feel welcomed and open to asking questions, sharing personal stories, asking for advice. Use this template as a starting point for your community guidelines, personalizing to the needs of your community and what you're looking to achieve.

Our Community Guidelines

Welcome to the [COMPANY] community! This is a safe space to discuss [COMPANY PRODUCTS/VALUES]. It is our hope that everyone feels welcome to have their voice be heard in our community. To that end, we encourage your feedback and aim to respond to your comments as soon as possible.

While we do moderate this community, we welcome open discussion. To help everyone feel welcome, we ask that you keep the following guidelines in mind when you post:

- Defamatory, indecent, offensive, profane, discriminatory, misleading, unlawful, or threatening language is not allowed.
- Personal attacks, name-calling, trolling, and abuse will not be tolerated.
- Spamming, posting promotional material, or posting links to third-party websites is not permitted.
- We reserve the right to delete comments and block any repeat offenders. Content that is fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading will be removed.
- Coordinated group attacks will not be tolerated.
- We welcome different viewpoints. Respect that people have had different life experiences and may have an alternate perspective.
- Our community is a public place. Don't post personal information that you would not be comfortable sharing with a stranger. We recommend that you don't post personal identifiable information such as your address, email address, or phone number.
- Employees participating in the discussion in our community are reminded of the staff social media guidelines.

Questions about our products or services? Visit [www.YOURWEBSITE.com].

If you'd like to chat with a customer service representative, please get in touch with us at: [XXX-XXX-XXXX and/or EMAIL@YOUREMAIL.COM].