

When it comes to creating an Instagram landing page, the easier you can make it for potential clients to get questions answered without needing immediate, personalized follow-up, the better.

Use this checklist to create an effective Instagram landing page.

Brainstorming the Lists

- ☐ Frequently requested links
 - Website
 - About me (bio)
 - Other social media accounts
 - A link to schedule or purchase
 - FAQs
- ☐ Ways to connect
 - Online appointment scheduling site
 - Free Facebook group
 - Freebie with newsletter signup
 - Website contact form
- ☐ Social proof
 - Interviews (podcast episodes, TV features, magazine articles)
 - Writing samples (blogs or published articles)
 - Client testimonials
 - Pitch page or media kit
- ☐ Time-sensitive links
 - Promotions
 - Affiliate links or brand partnerships
 - Upcoming events

Narrowing the Lists

Select up to 12 of the most relevant links to feature on your Instagram landing page. Here's a list of links to consider:

- Website
- Newsletter signup or text message marketing signup
- A free offering to capture email or phone number (a challenge, guide, webinar, checklist, YouTube workout, free class, e-book, etc.)
- A recent interview or feature
- A professional blog or podcast
- Comprehensive list of services
- Online offerings (course, program, membership site, or products)
- Your other social media profiles
- A sales page for your latest launch or upcoming launch
- A specific product you offer
- Client testimonials
- Your contact page

Pro Tips

- Check your links weekly to make sure they all work.
- Look at analytics to assess performance of all links.
- Ask for feedback from a friend or family member.
- Rotate the link order every week or two for visibility.
- Remove old or irrelevant links; update or add new links every week or two.

Use this space to record notes, questions, or reminders about updates you may need to make later.
